FIRST DAY.

MISHAWAKA, IND., WEDNESDAY, March 29, 1893.

The Fiftieth Session of the North Indiana Annual Conference was opened in the city of Mishawaka, Ind., by Bishop Isaac W. Joyce, at 8.30 A. M., March 29, 1893, who read from the fortieth chapter of Isaiah, and from the eleventh chapter of First Corinthians, verses 23 to 26, inclusive, after which he proceeded to consecrate and administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, assisted by the Presiding Elders. The Conference then sang a hymn composed for this semi-centennial session by the Rev. T. C. Neal—

"O, God, with thankful, happy hearts," after which Bishop Joyce led in prayer.

Smith, recommended by the Greenfield Quarterly Conference; David S. Jones, recommended by the Warren Quarterly Conference; John R. Conner, recommended by the Atwood Quarterly Conference; Lincoln Steere, recommended by the Mt. Etna Quarterly Conference.

Sabbath Desecration.—The Committee on Sabbath Desecration presented their report, which was read and adopted. (See Reports.)

Standing Committees for 1894.—The list of the nominations for the standing committees for the session of 1894 was read. (See List.)

Program.—The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the Presiding Elder of the Fort Wayne District, and the preacher in charge of Bluffton, be hereby directed to prepare and print a suitable program of anniversaries, sermons and services for the ensuing session of this Conference.

Minutes.—The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary be hereby instructed to publish six thousand copies of the minutes of this session as the official journal of the session; that the minutes be sent to the Presiding Elders in quantities proportioned to the number of members in full connection in each district; that the Presiding Elders distribute them to the preachers in charge in proportion to the number of members in full connection on each charge, and settle with the Secretary within sixty days after they receive the minutes; that each preacher be required to pay for his quota of minutes at the time he receives them; and that the Secretary be hereby authorized in estimating the cost of the minutes to include the cost of any blanks, or of any incidental expenses that he, or the Statistical Secretary, or the Treasurer may necessarily incur.

C. W. Lynch. D. C. Woolpert.
A. E. Mahin. Thomas Stabler.
H. N. Herrick. W. S. Birch.

Collection.—A collection was taken to defray the expenses of printing the program of this session, and of postage, amounting to $11.61.

J. M. DeWeese.—It was requested that J. M. DeWeese be left without appointment to attend school.

Constitution of the Mutual Aid.—On motion of P. J. Albright, the Secretary was directed to publish in the minutes the Constitution of the Mutual Aid Society.

Resolution.—The following was adopted:

Resolved, That all corrections to the published statistics be made only through the Statistical Secretary, and that we request the Western Christian Advocate not to publish any private corrections.

C. G. Hudson. L. J. Naftzger.
J. K. Walts. W. D. Parr.
M. A. Harlan.

Resolution.—The following was adopted:

Resolved, That in view of the fact that the statistical blanks furnished by the New York Book Concern, have, after trial, been found to be unsatisfactory, we therefore instruct our Statistical Secretary to prepare and send out his statistical cards for reports at our next session, adding blanks for the Epworth League statistics.

J. K. Walts. W. D. Parr.
J. M. Driver, M. A. Harlan,
C. G. Hudson, L J. Naftzger.

Resolution.—The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the blanks furnished for the statistical reports of this Conference shall contain proper columns for the detailed salary statements of the circuits, and that such statements be published in the minutes.

M. A. Harlan.
C. C. Cissell.
B. S. Hollopeter.

Resolution.—The following was adopted by a unanimous rising vote:

Resolved, That our thanks are due, and are hereby tendered, to our dear Brother Kemp, for his untiring efforts in arranging for the entertainment and comfort of the Conference. Also to the members of our Church and the citizens of Mishawaka for their generous hospitality. Also to the members of the choir and others who have so greatly contributed to the pleasure of our meetings by the excellent music rendered, and to the Mishawaka Enterprise and other representatives of the press, for the full, accurate and excellently well-written reports of the work of our Conference.

C. G. Hudson. W. R. Wones.
L. J. Naftzger. W. M. Nelson.
L. A. Beeks. M. A. Harlan.
Asher S. Preston. E. A. McClintock.
Ross Gahring.

Resolution.—The following was adopted by a unanimous rising vote:

Resolved, That we rejoice in the arrangement of Providence and the plan of the Committee of Bishops which has returned to us so soon our beloved brother, Bishop Isaac W. Joyce. His evangelical spirit, his practical and excellent address to the class for admission, his wonderful presentation of the Gospel in his sermon on Sabbath, have given us a spiritual uplift that shall be an inspiration to us during the entire Conference year.

We earnestly pray that our heavenly Father may spare him for many years to prosecute the plans so successfully begun to bring back to the Church the old time spirit and power. We also hereby express the hope that he may be sent to us soon again.

C. G. Hudson. W. M. Nelson.
L. J. Naftzger. M. A. Harlan.
L. A. Beeks. E. A. McClintock.
E. F. Albertson. William D. Parr.
J. W Bowen. W. S. Birch.
W. R. Wones.

Journal.—The Journal of the morning session, and of the afternoon session to this point, was read and approved.

Churches in Mishawka.—A resolution of thanks was passed to the churches of Mishawka, which have accommodated us with the use of their houses for committee purposes.

The Bishop gave out Hymn 797,

"Blest be the tie that binds," which was sung, after which he led in prayer.

Adjournment.—On motion of E. F. Hasty, it was resolved that after the reading of the appointments, the Conference adjourn sine die.

Bishop Joyce addressed the conference in suitable remarks, after which he read the appointments. The Doxology was sung, the Benediction was pronounced by Bishop Joyce, and the North Indiana Conference stood adjourned without day.

REPORTS.

ON EDUCATION.

DePauw University.

We call attention to a part of the report of the visitors of DePauw University, as follows:

To the North Indiana Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren—Your corporate Visitors to DePauw University respectfully present their annual report, as follows: We have attended the various meetings of the Joint Board, and have visited the University at various other times. We have found a general prosperity in every department in each school. The University has maintained the high grade of excellence to which it has arisen. The attendance of the students, so far as we can learn, equals the large numbers of the preceding year, although the incidental fees have been raised.

But few changes have been made among the members of the various faculties, and in every case excellent successors have been chosen.

All departments are doing efficient work, admirable in many cases, when we consider the lack of room and suitable appliances. The Department of Chemistry needs a new laboratory, and, both for the comfort of the Institution and of the Department, a suitable laboratory should be erected. A new Library building should be one of the things to be soon arranged for. We trust that the liberality of the church and of the alumni of the Institution will soon aid in these buildings.

The School of Music is greatly straitened for room with all the recent enlargement, and could now make use of double its present space.

We take pleasure in saying that the Schools of Theology, Law, Military Science, Music, Art, as well as the Preparatory School, are all in fine condition, and have our warmest commendation to our church at large.

We are especially glad to report the organization of a summer school, to begin the coming summer, under the direction of the members of the various faculties, with a large number of departments, embracing many of the branches of learning. This summer school will continue six weeks during the summer vacation. Its work will not be of any superficial character, but thoroughly of a university grade. We have great expectations of the result of this summer school, and believe it is one of the promising undertakings of the Institution, and that it will become one of the most valued departments of the University. Send for circulars to the officers of the University.

We are also glad to say that DePauw is taking up the work of university extension, and that Professor Weaver is devoting as much of his spare time as possible to the extension. Many circles have been organized, and directed by him in different portions of the State, worthily representing the University.

We recommend that C. G. Hudson and T. B. Redding be elected Trustees, and J. K. Walts and G. H. Hill Visitors to DePauw University, and E. F. Hasty, L. A. Beeks and J. A. R. Gahring Visitors to DePauw School of Theology, and that $1,000 be apportioned among the districts for DePauw School of Theology.

We commend again our splendid Theological Schools, Boston, Madison, N. J., and Evanston, and recommend as Visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute G. N. Eldridge, J. W. Cain, H. C. Smith and F. M. Stone.

We recognize the important work of the Board of Education, and recommend that Children's Day be observed in all our churches, and that the collection be devoted only to the children's fund as required by the Discipline, and that the day be not made an occasion to collect other funds.

WHEREAS, The Board of Education at a cost of $772.50, assisted twenty-one students from the territory of this Conference last year, a sum greater than was contributed by the Conference.

Resolved, That we recognize the necessity of increasing the Children's Day collection.

We also recommend the use of the official program in these services.

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

It is with pleasure that we mention the visit of Chancellor Bishop John F. Hurst in the interests of the American University. His presentation of facts relating to the inception and development of the most comprehensive University ever contemplated by the Methodist Episcopal Church, gave great satisfaction to the Conference. We commend this institution to all our people as worthy of their ardent prayers and most generous gifts, and as a Conference, we will do all we can to advance the interests of The American University.

J. K. WALTS, Secretary. JOHN H. BICKFORD, Chairman.

The following resolutions were a portion of the report of the Committee on Education, and were ordered by the Conference to by printed in the minutes, and to be considered at the next session:

WHEREAS, The Alumni of DePauw University have asked that they be allowed, as such, representation upon the Board of Trustees of that Institution by representatives chosen by themselves; and,

WHEREAS, The Board of Trustees has, while declaring in favor of granting such request, declined to act without consent first given by the several Conferences of the State; therefore be it

Resolved, That, in our opinion, the interests of the Institution will be promoted by giving the alumni a fair and direct representation in the Board of Trustees, provided proper safeguards are adopted to preserve unimpaired the high and distinctive character of the university, as one of the great educational agencies of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Resolved, That, in our opinion, no special legislation should be asked or allowed touching our special charter; but the object should, if possible, be accomplished by means of a general law, the provisions of which can be adopted without impairment of the special charter of the university.

Resolved, That, in our opinion, the representatives of the alumni, chosen by them, should not exceed four in number.

Resolved, That upon the foregoing conditions we consent to the alumnal representatives upon the Board, and authorize the trustees selected by this Conference to act accordingly.

Resolved, That if provision is made for alumnal representation in the Board of Trustees of DePauw University, in our opinion, the representatives of the alumni should come as additional members of the Board, and that no reductions should be made in the number elected by the Conference, or in the manner of their election.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

Your Committee on the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society submit the following report:

Rejoicing in the achievements of this department of our church work, appreciating its worth, acknowledging our duty, in the spirit of loyalty to our God and native land, ever earnest for the advancement of the poor and distressed, we view, with no small degree of pride, the results of many years of work and sacrifice in this special department; yet, because the demands are increaing and thousands are crying for aid, schools are hampered and our work is held back by the carelessness of the pastors and people regarding this cause; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we take greater interest in this cause, urge our people to become acquainted, through the literature of the Society, with its demands and needs, and present the claims of "The Christian Educator" from our pulpits.

Resolved, That we recommend the first Sabbath in July as the date to be observed throughout our conference as "Freedmen's Aid Day," and that all collections taken on that day be devoted to this cause alone.

S. LIGHT,
C. H. BROWN,
JOHN C. WHITE,
Committee.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church makes general statement of the work of twenty-seven years. The organization of this work, though directed by the General Conference of 1864, was not completed until the latter part of 1865, and the work really began in 1866.

From 1886 to March, 1893, the Board has collected and disbursed in round numbers (the exact figures change daily)		$4,720,000
Of this, the General Fund, derived chiefly from collections, but including special gifts for Frontier Churches, $250 each, and Mountain Fund specials of $100 each, contained, for use by donations to churches	$3,055,000
The Loan Fund contains a permanent capital of $805,000
And churches borrowing from it have returned an equal amount	860,000	1,665,000
Making the aggregate above given		$4,720,000

With this the Board has aided 8,645 churches, more than one-third of the entire number owned by our church.

Our Conference has shared in this work as follows:

The collections taken in our churches from the beginning to November 1, 1892, the close of the fiscal year of the Board, have aggregated	$22,438 90
Those reported to the Board in Philadelphia from November 1, 1892, to date are	10 00
Cash received by Conference Treasurer (do not include vouchers),	2,481 00
Making a total of	$24,929 90
Churches within our bounds have received aid up to November 1, 1892, the close of the last Church Extension year, to the number of	20
By donations of	$3,300 00
And loans of	4,400 00

It is manifest that the efficiency and value of the Loan Fund depend upon the fidelity and promptness of churches borrowing from it, in meeting their obligations. To fail in this is a most serious fault, which the Board in Philadelphia, as the custodians of the fund, should not, under any circumstances, permit. We urge our churches to meet every obligation with the strictest fidelity.

Christianity in Earnest, being issued every two months, gives fresh and valuable information concerning church extension and suggestive discussions of this and kindred subjects. It is a great help to pastors, and a larger circulation among our people, especially our official members, would promote the interest of this cause. Glad Tidings, with its service of song and condensed information, is pre-eminently adapted for church extension service in every church and Sunday-school. We cordially recommend its use in taking the annual collections.

Church Architecture, has been greatly improved under the auspices of the Board, and we earnestly advise all who contemplate building, to avail themselves of the facilities which the Board has to offer.

In organizing new churches, and in taking titles to church property, there should be great care to conform to the laws of the State and the Discipline of the Church. The necessary information is now accessible to all in the book on Laws and Forms for Churches, prepared by Dr. A. J. Kynett. This and the necessary blank forms can be obtained from him.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. We congratulate the Church upon the great work accomplished by our Board of Church Extension, and commend it to the enlarged liberality of all our people.

2. The fact that our country is new, that our population doubles in less than thirty years, so that within another quarter of a century we shall exceed an hundred millions of people, and that the powers of evil are intensely active, demand that the work of church extension shall be greatly enlarged in the quarter of a century to come.

3. We will not be content until, in the enlargement of this work under the direction of the General Committee and Board of Church Extension, we shall fully perform the part assigned us as a Conference.

4. In order to do this we will, in our several appointments, avail ourselves of the helps provided by the Board, in Christianity in Earnest and Glad Tidings, and will endeavor to lead all our churches to respond in full to the call made upon them in pursuance of the plans of the discipline.

SOMERVILLE LIGHT, Secretary. A. W. LAMPORT, President.

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

Regarding our Sunday-school publications as peerless in their line, providing so perfectly for all ages and grades, and being in quality so fine and in price so low, we rejoice in their now almost universal adoption in our schools. No Methodist Sunday-school can afford to be without them.

We call the attention of our people to "Good Tidings Day," the third Sunday in October, and recommend its general observance in the interest of the Sunday-school Union and Tract cause of our Church.

Being called upon to report each year the number of conversions in the Sunday-schools, which certainly implies that the Sunday-school is to be used as a direct agency for the conversion of its members, we recommend that a part of the Sunday-school hour on at least one Sunday in the month be wisely employed in earnest effort to lead souls to an immediate decision for Christ. Let our Sunday-school Boards generally enter prayerfully upon this work, and we believe the number of conversions in our schools will be greatly increased.

We would name the following as the officers of the Sunday-school Society for the year to come: President, C. King; Vice-Presidents, C. H. Murray, C. Harvey, R. H. Smith, J. A. Beatty, D. H. Guild; Treasurer, L. M. Krider; Secretary, W. S. Stewart.

C. KING, Secretary. J. W. CAIN, President.

TRACT CAUSE.

We recognize the necessity of tract distribution, because it goes where the preacher does not, and often can not go; because of its cheapness; its adaptation to every case of need; its brevity, as well as ease and convenience in circulation.

The Tract Society is desirous that each pastor should avail himself of the free grants of tracts for distribution in his charge.

Therefore, we, your committee, would urge renewed activity upon the part of pastors to secure the amount apportioned.

Amount raised last year $385 00
This year 433 00

R. S. REED,
Committee.

W. F. M. S. AND W. H. M. S.

We bid our elect sisters god-speed in their heaven-appointed work.

We pledge ourselves to render them every possible aid in all their endeavors to hasten the gospelization of the world.

We recommend the organization of auxiliary societies in every pastoral charge.

We suggest the publication and circulation of more literature bearing on the condition of woman in heathen lands. If such books as "Women of the Orient" could be issued in cheap binding, and it, and other smaller books and pamphlets or tracts, could be sown broadcast, the work and consequent interest and collections would be greatly advanced.

We suggest the preparation of a course of reading covering, in a thorough and systematic manner, the entire field, and the organization of Reading Circles for the purpose of mutually aiding each other in the prosecution of said investigations. Upon the completion of the course of study let the graduate receive an appropriate certificate or diploma. Let the literary telescope sweep the entire horizon, and the microscope reveal the needs and condition of the most obscure and remote people on the planet. "The field is the world." "The world is my parish."

The organization of such sisterhoods as the Pythian, Rebekahs, and Eastern Star, indicates the marvelous forces in our churches that wait to be utilized for moral and spiritual regeneration of the whole earth. While we have only good will for all the honorable secular sisterhoods in the various lodges and elsewhere, we are nevertheless firmly convinced that the first duty of our Christian women belongs to Christ, to His church, and to those organizations that have for their aim the spiritual regeneration of universal mankind.

We believe wherever secular organizations of women exist, a woman's missionary society should also be planted. Let our devoted women in the poorest and most out-of-the-way charges rally and organize and press forward the glorious work.

We congratulate our sisters on the magnificent advance they have made this year.

T. D. THARP,
Secretary.

J. M. DRIVER,
Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Your Committee on the Epworth League would respectfully report as follows:

1. That the remarkable growth of this Society of young people in our church, and the cordial reception of this interest on the part of our people, is a matter of worthy congratulation.
2. That we hereby recognize the efficient services of the State Secretary, Mr. H. L. VanDorin, within the bounds of our Conference, and that as pastors we will heartily welcome him to our charges.
3. We ask that columns be provided for Epworth League statistics in the printed minutes of this Annual Conference.

BOOK CONCERN.

WHEREAS, Our Sunday-school papers have been enlarged, beautified and otherwise greatly improved, until our Sunday-school literature ranks with the very best and cheapest that is published; therefore be it

Resolved, That we will endeavor more than ever to universally adopt and use our Methodist literature in our Sunday-schools.

WHEREAS, The agents of our Concern, the publishers of the Western Christian Advocate, are offering such excellent premiums to the subscribers to the Western; therefore be it

Resolved, That we heartily indorse the movement and will push the subscription to the utmost limit of our ability.

WHEREAS, The liberal premium offer demonstrates the ability of the publishers of the Western Christian Advocate to furnish the paper at a lower price than two dollars per year; and

WHEREAS, Many of our members and parishioners are unable or unwilling to pay the present price of the paper; therefore be it

Resolved, That we favor the reduction of the present price of the Western Christian Advocate to the extent, at least, of the value of the premium so that the paper can be offered without the premium for one dollar and fifty cents.

Resolved, That we congratulate our Publishing Agents and Dr. Moore on their successful management of their respective departments.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We, the Committee on the American Bible Society, submit the following report:

WHEREAS, This Society has been indorsed by the General Conference, and is approved for its undenominational character as tending to the unification of Protestantism, and has not only given invaluable help in our own country, but in our foreign fields of labor by raising and appropriating thousands of dollars to enable us to reach our present status; therefore, be it

Resolved, (1) That the North Indiana Conference give the American Bible Society its hearty indorsement. (2) That we approve of its undenominational character as tending to the unification of Protestantism. (3) That we recognize in it a powerful and indispensable helper in our foreign missionary work, and urge upon our preachers to emphasize its importance from their pulpits, and take a special collection for the same. (4) That we indorse the untiring labors of our District Superintendent, the Rev. W. J. Vigus, and we will welcome him to our charges during this coming year.

SUPPORT OF CLAIMANTS.

Your committee recommend the following plan for the sustentation of Superannuates:

I. COLLECTION.—Each congregation shall observe a Sunday to be known as Veterans' Day, upon which the pastor shall present this cause to the members of the church, and emphasize their obligations to the Conference Claimants. A collection shall be taken in the public congregation for the support of Conference Claimants separate from any other interest.

II. DISTRIBUTION.—All moneys received for annual distribution in aid of the support of Conference Claimants shall be divided into two sums: the first, consisting of 75 per cent. of the whole, shall be called the Annuity Fund; the second, consisting of 25 per cent. of the whole, shall be called the Necessitous Fund. All superannuated ministers, the widows, and dependent children of deceased ministers, shall be Conference Claimants, unless the claim be voluntarily relinquished.

The Annuity Fund shall be divided among the Claimants upon the following basis: Each minister shall receive annually ten dollars for each year of his effective service; each widow shall receive one-half her husband's claim; each child shall receive one-fifth its father's claim. These claims shall be paid pro rata from the moneys in hand.

The Necessitous Fund shall be divided among the Claimants, whether superannuates, widows or children, whose annuities are insufficient for their needs, in such proportions as the Committee on Conference Claimants may deem equitable.

The gross allowance to each Claimant from the above funds shall be reported to and approved by the Annual Conference.

WHEREAS, The carrying out of this plan will require an increased income for the support of Conference Claimants; therefore,

Resolved, That each member of the Conference, except those who are superannuated, shall contribute as follows:

Those receiving a salary of less than $500, one-half of one per cent. of said salary; those receiving $500 to $1,000, three-quarters of one per cent; those receiving $1,000 and over, one per cent.; the rent of parsonage being included in every case. This per cent. of salary to be in addition to any contributions made and credited to the charge served, or credited anywhere else.

The committee also recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society be instructed to take the necessary action to amend the Constitution of said Society by striking out Article VIII, and substituting therefor the plan contained in this report, including the paragraph under "I, Collection," and "II, Distribution," and also the salary, pro rata basis, contained therein.

J. K. WALTS, Secretary. M. H. MENDENHALL, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE.

We have annually declared our faith, that, "As an act of civil government, prohibition is the only righteous solution of the business of dram-selling." We have repeated after the Board of Bishops, "That it can never be legalized without sin," and we hereby affirm and indorse the utterance of our last General Conference in its declarations on "Temperance and the prohibition of the liquor traffic." We desire to especially emphasize this part of said report which reads, "We do record our deliberate judgment that no political party has a right to expect, nor ought to receive the support of Christian men so long as it stands committed to the license policy, or refuses to put itself on record in an attitude of open hostility to the saloon."

For years we have waited in hope that the dominant politicians, who declaim their unsullied loyalty and love of country, would, like true patriots, drop the trip-hammer of righteousness on the heated truth, and crush out this monstrous evil from the body politic. But except in a few localities and States, the mighty traffic goes on with such vitality and insolence as to threaten all existing prohibitory legislation, as well as the home and the State.

Believing all this, we hereby declare, "That we will not vote for any party that is committed to the license policy, or that fails to put itself on record in open hostility to the saloon, neither will we vote for any candidate for any office, who is not, in his capacity as an individual and an officer, committed to the prohibition of the liquor traffic."

We believe that as ministers of the gospel, it is our duty to preach the principles of true temperance to our people, and this we will do, urging all Christians to hostility to this evil, and openly condemning the traffic in every community.

In harmony with the action of our last General Conference, we urge the organization of "Christian Temperance Leagues" in all our charges; and we recommend that the Committee on Temperance appointed at this Conference, be authorized to correspond and operate with like committees, appointed from the Annual Conferences in this State, and from other representative religious bodies, to plan and work for the suppression of the saloon.

We recommend that this Conference appoint three delegates to attend the "World's Temperance Congress," which convenes at Chicago, Illinois, June 5, 1893.

POPULAR AMUSEMENTS.

Your Committee on Popular Amusements submit the following:

We deprecate the condition that has become alarming in our Churches, the tendency of our young people to form circles for amusement, such as card playing, select dancing parties, theater going, training for and attending horse-racing, and other similar amusements, all of which are forbidden in the Discipline, and are attended with demoralizing effect; therefore be it

Resolved, That we will use all proper means to dissuade our people from indulging in any and all such amusements as weaken moral power and lower the standard of consistent Christian character.

Resolved, That, while we are in sympathy with every organization that develops morality and elevates the standard of manhood and womanhood, we believe that the Church and its spiritual means of grace should be pre-eminently above the lodge and all other organizations.

Resolved, That all our pulpits and press stand pledged to defeat this rising tide, by offering no compromise, but demand a faithful adherence to the letter and spirit of the Discipline of the Church.

SABBATH DESECRATION.

Your Committee on Sabbath Desecration respectfully submit the following report:

WHEREAS, There is a growing tendency to disregard the sacred institution of the Sabbath, the high claims of which God has enforced by command in his Holy Word; and

WHEREAS, One of Israel's greatest sins was that of Sabbath desecration, it being akin to idolatry, for which they were most signally punished, it is high time that Christians should awake to the danger that threatens us as a people, because of our disregard of the Sabbath day; therefore, be it

Resolved, That as a Conference we will, both by precept and example, use our influence to break up the prevailing custom of open restaurants, meat markets, stores, and open gates to worldly pleasure or gain on the Lord's Day.

Resolved, That as ministers of the gospel we will not content ourselves with mere Conference resolutions, but we will preach on the subject, and make clear to our people the proper manner of observance of the Christian Sabbath.

Resolved, That we most heartily approve the action of Congress in closing the gates of the Columbian Exposition on the Sabbath, and in refusing to repeal that action.

PROTECTION OF AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS.

Your Committee on American Institutions beg leave to submit the following report:

WHEREAS, In different parts of our land, in many parts of the States, dangerous compromises have been entered into between the public schools and sectarian parochial schools, whereby certain ecclesiastics secure the benefits of the public schools for the children and youth of their faith and impart sectarian instruction at the expense of the State; and

WHEREAS, The most advanced attitude of the highest authorities of the Roman Catholic Church toward the public schools, which they have heretofore unsparingly condemned, is that of grudging toleration and not of loyal commendation, and the toleration avowedly based upon the fact that their own people are yet too poor to adequately support their own church parochial schools; and

WHEREAS, Bold and uncompromising demands have recently been made upon State legislatures for the enactment of laws which shall divide the public school funds on denominational and sectarian lines; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, That the stability of a republican form of government rests mainly upon the intelligence of its citizenship, and this intelligence of the average citizen is chiefly due in this country to the public school instruction.

Resolved, That any person or power that threatens the integrity or existence of the public schools is an enemy of the Republic.

Resolved, That we will jealously watch and loyally guard these nurseries of our citizenship, and whenever they are assaulted, we will defend them without malice, without bigotry, without fear, but without compromise.

Resolved, That the national language must have precedence and mastery in the national schools.

Resolved, That all partisan political control and all sectarianism in the management and teaching of the public schools, and all evidences in the structures used, or in the garb of teachers, that would suggest sectarian relationship, or hint at the remotest connection of Church and State, must be banished.

Resolved, That we will exhort our people to exert themselves as citizens to defend national, state, county and municipal treasuries against all attempts or pretexts for the division of the sacred funds which they hold for the support of the public schools.

Resolved, The Presiding Elders are requested to bring this subject before the Quarterly Conferences, and that the members of this Conference are requested to keep their people thoroughly informed concerning the assaults upon the public schools and exhort them to a loyal and patriotic defense of this vitally important American institution.

MEMORIAL FROM GOSHEN DISTRICT.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—One of the most lamentable facts in the history of the North Indiana Conference is its continued failure to appreciate the claims and supply the needs of our worthy Superannuated Ministers.

Our Church is making a magnificent record on many lines. Her great connectional interests are receiving the attention due from both preachers and people, and the hearty endorsement of the Bishops of the Church.

Her interest in education is shown in the great universities she is founding and colleges she is building.

Her charity and love for the race is seen in the hospitals projected and help extended to the poor unfortunate of mankind.

The fires of her mission stations give evidence of her increasing wealth and liberality, but the heroic Methodist preacher who laid the foundations of the Church and made possible her present achievements, when age and disease have incapacitated him from further service is, if a member of this Conference, left in almost abject penury and want to suffer until the Master shall say "it is enough."

This deplorable condition, so long existing, certainly demands and may have a speedy remedy; therefore, we, the ministers of Goshen District, North Indiana Conference, with some appreciation of these facts, feel that,

WHEREAS, The needs of these estimable brethren are truly demanding our immediate attention; and,

WHEREAS, The available funds for their relief are so meager, and the amount so uncertain, that other plans should be formulated looking to a permanent and satisfactory support; and,

WHEREAS, The laity of the Church are in hearty sympathy with these veterans, and evince a commendable disposition to contribute to this cause; and,

WHEREAS, Other Conferences have accumulated a large investment fund that enables them to pay their superannuates a sufficient sum to meet their wants, we believe the time is ripe for a vigorous and persistent effort to found a like fund or source of revenue for this Conference; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Conference to convene in annual session at Mishawaka, Indiana, March 29, 1893, be and is hereby requested to give this subject immediate attention.

Resolved, That the Conference be asked to examine the plans of the New York East and other Conferences that are in the lead in providing for and paying the full claims of their Conference Claimants.

Resolved, That we request the Conference to raise a committee of seven, to whom shall be referred all documents, papers, tracts and other available matter; said committee to report not later than the third day of the present annual session.

REPORT OF THE SELECT NUMBER.

To the North Indiana Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHERN:—Your Select Committee appointed to hear the appeal of Alvin S. Nelson, a local preacher, of Noblesville Quarterly Conference, met in the Chapel of the Presbyterian Church at Mishawka, Indiana, March 30, 1893. The following were present: M. H. Mendenhall, Chairman; L. A. Beeks, Secretary; counsel for defendant, C. U. Wade; counsel for the Church, C. G. Hudson and M. Mahin; and the following select committee:

W. R. Wones, A. L. Lamport, J. H. Jackson, J. A. Beatty, E. L. Semans, J. T. Fettro, F. M. Lacy, C. H. Brown, Isaac W. Singer, C. C. Cissell, S. Light.

The charge and specifications, testimony, and verdict of said Quarterly Conference were read, and after arguments by the counsel for defendant and the Church, it was moved by E. L. Semans, that the decision of the Quarterly Conference expelling said A. S. Nelson from the Church be sustained, and the motion was adopted. The committee then adjourned.

L. A. BEEKS, Secretary. M. H. MENDENHALL, Chairman.

MISHAWAKA, IND., March 31, 1893.

APPORTIONMENT OF BENEVOLENCES.

The Presiding Elders, being appointed a committee to apportion the benevolences, submit the following report:

MEMOIRS.

THE REV. LAWSON W. MONSON.

No worthier man, no truer minister, has fallen from our ranks than Lawson W. Monson. His ancestors were natives of England. After reaching these shores they settled in Connecticut. During the revolutionary war their sympathies were wholly with the colonies. The father of Mr. Monson settled in Ohio, in Clark county, at an early date, where, in the town of Springfield, on the 5th day of March, 1815, the subject of this memoir was born.

In the year 1836 Brother Monson located in South Bend, Ind. Seven years later, in 1843, he entered the Indiana Conference. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Hamline, at Lafayette, September 28, 1845. He was ordained Elder by Bishop Janes, September 19, 1847, at Indianapolis. His first appointment was Plymouth, one year; then came Goshen, LaGrange and Marion, each two years. He was then appointed to Wabash Circuit, which embraced nearly all of Wabash county, including only two church edifices. Within the same territory now are over twenty Methodist churches, more than half of which he dedicated. At the end of two years in that charge, he was made agent for Ft. Wayne College, which relation only continued one year. His next appointments were Noblesville, two years; Pendleton, one year; Berry St., Ft. Wayne, one year; then four years he was Presiding Elder of Goshen District; one year again on Wabash charge, where he led in building the edifice in which his funeral obsequies were finally held; he was then Presiding Elder on Peru District four years; the following four years found him Presiding Elder on Ft. Wayne District; the last four years he served his last term as Presiding Elder on Warsaw District. His late appointments were Lagro, three years; Wabash Circuit, two years. He then superannuated two years. The American Bible Society then desired his appointment as Bible Agent for Wabash county, in which office he served two years. He then asked to be released from regular work and continued on the superannuated roll until his death, which occurred in the city of Wabash, April 9, 1892.

Brother Monson was a very useful, worthy and efficient minister of the gospel. He was wise in his plans and prudent in the execution of them. He was loving and tender in his social relations. Few men in this world have enjoyed so widely and unsparingly the good will of all. Children loved him; young people loved him; old people well nigh worshiped him. His voice was soft and melodious as a flute. His piety so deep and constant, attained to great ripeness of culture. His utterances were pathetic and full of unction. The people everywhere, without exception, loved to hear him preach. In his service as Presiding Elder on all the Districts there were rarely found buildings large enough to hold his audiences. He fairly swept the country like a pillar of fire divinely chosen. Though he lived to good old age he lost none of his sweetness, and little of his usefulness. He kept busy up to the very last. His private statistics show that during his ministry he preached over twelve hundred funeral sermons, dedicated ninety-five churches, baptized two thousand persons, received into the church two thousand and two hundred and fifty converts, and solemnized twelve hundred marriages.

Brother Monson was a member of the General Conference of 1860, and was twice thereafter elected alternate delegate.

He was married to Miss Eliza Brown, of Indianapolis, in 1837, by whom he had five children. His wife deceased in 1856, while he was pastor of Berry St. Church, Ft. Wayne. His second marriage was to Miss Louisa Baker, daughter of Rev. Thomas Baker of Pittsburg Conference, in 1857. To this wedlock were born four children.

Bro. Monson was present at the last session of our Conference, held one year ago in Anderson. He seemed unusually glad to greet his ministerial brethren, spoke joyfully of the present and hopefully of the future in our Conference love feast. He went home with a light heart, and almost immediatelp took his bed in sickness and died before the following Sabbath. His last Sunday on the earth was in our Conference love feast. His affliction was pneumonia. His breathing was difficult and heavy. At my first visit to him he reached his hand, saying: "Very sick, brother; very sick. I may pull through and I may not. But it's all right, brother; it's all right." At the last, sweetly and without a struggle, he resigned his spirit into the hands of God at the ripe age of seventy-seven years.

A. W. LAMPORT.

THE REV. SAMUEL L. JOHNSON.

Samuel Ludlow Johnson son of Agustus and Mary Jane Johnson, was born in Troy, Ohio, March 3, 1858, and died in the Methodist Episcopal parsonage at Albany, Ind., July 24, 1892, aged thirty-four years, four months and twenty-one days.

His parents came to Indiana in the year 1860 and settled in Pennville, where they have resided until the present time, with the exception of one year. Here he obtained his education. At the age of eighteen he began the work of teaching in the public schools, and continued in this more or less for eight years.

Our brother joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in Pennville, Ind., in the year 1876, under the labors of Rev. James Leonard, but was not converted until seven years later.

Within three months of the time of his conversion he preached his first sermon from Rom. 6 : 23—"For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." He was sent to the Annual Conference held at Peru, in 1884, as lay delegate from the Pennville charge, and was at the same time recommended for admission into the traveling connection in the Methodist ministry.

The confidence imposed in him by his Presiding Elder and the cabinet is indicated by the fact that in less than four months from the time of his conversion, he was not only admitted on trial into the North Indiana Conference, but appointed senior preacher on a large and important charge. A successful pastorate of three years in this capacity is sufficient evidence that this confidence was not misplaced.

Brother Johnson's ministry of over eight years is confined to three pastoral charges; Eaton and New Corner, three years; Alexandria, three years; Albany, two years and a part of the third, when the Father and Bishop of our souls gave him a transfer to the church triumphant and stationed him in heaven.

At the close of his successful ministry on the New Corner charge, he was married by his Presiding Elder, Rev. B. A. Kemp, to Miss Lou Emma Barger, of Anderson, Ind., March 30, 1887. Thus for a little over five years our brother and sister journeyed together in the itinerate ranks, mutually sharing the joys and bearing the burdens incident to such life. Two bright and promising boys were born to them. We pray that our Heavenly Father may ever keep and protect them, and that they may continually bring the brightest sunshine into the saddened heart of our sister.

Perhaps the leading traits in Brother Johnson's character were genuineness, a true revival spirit and a wonderful enthusiasm of the right sort. Those who have best known our brother never doubted his sincerity. What he believed, that he preached; and what he preached, his hearers were confident he believed.

His genuineness may be compared to the Pauline sort, "Having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed and therefore have I spoken; we also believe and, therefore, speak." And this characteristic was not only manifest in his preaching, but in his home life, on the street and in all his intercourse with men.

Brother Johnson excelled as a revivalist. He never passed a barren year. Going forth weeping, bearing precious seed, he was permitted to come again rejoicing and bearing his sheaves with him.

His last illness was of short duration. He suffered much, but was patient, trusting and happy, frequently expressing himself as being perfectly resigned to the will of God.

On Sabbath afternoon, July 24th, surrounded by loving friends and parishioners, he peacefully passed away. Truly a good man has fallen. We bow in silent submission to the heavenly decree, not understanding its purpose, but trusting in its unerring judgment, and praying that a double portion of his spirit may fall on us, his co-laborers in the ministry, and that divine grace may fully sustain our dear sister in this bereavement.

"How beautiful it is for a man to die
Upon the walls of Zion; to be called
Like a watchworn and weary sentinel,
To put his armor off, and rest in heaven."

L. J. NAFTZGER.

THE REV. JEHU C. MEDSKER.

Jehu C. Medsker was a native of that portion of Virginia which is now set off as West Virginia. He was born near Morgantown, June 21, 1810. He lived with his parents on a farm until grown, when he came to New Castle, Indiana, and taught school several years, and thence removed to South Bend. He was married to Miss Josina Dodd in 1835, who for fifty-seven years was his faithful and loving helpmeet, and now awaits the day when she shall go to be with him.

To this happy union there were given fourteen children, all of whom lived to become of age, and six of whom survive.

He was converted in 1838. Soon after his conversion Brother Medsker began to demonstrate by his graces and usefulness that he was called to preach the gospel. In 1841, he was licensed to preach in the month of April, and that same year in the autumn he was admitted to the Indiana Conference. When the Indiana Conference was divided in 1844, he fell into the North Indiana Conference, in which he continued an honored and beloved member all the days of his life.

The list of his appointments reads: LaGrange, St. Joseph Missions, Terre Coupee, Bluffton, Granville, Winchester, Williamsburgh, Kokomo, Mexico, Clarksville, Pendleton, New Castle, Cicero, Miami, Akron, Coesse, Leesburg, LaGro. In 1869 broken health necessitated a superannuated relation, which continued to the end.

Brother Medsker was highly valued among us in the years of his activity. He was elected as the secretary of this body for the year 1858, at our session at Winchester. He was also honored by election, as one of the delegates to the General Conference of 1868. Our aged fathers will well remember him, his influence, and his counsels. Many have been brought into the church, and others are in the ministry to-day, as the result of his untiring labors and his inspired proclamation of the gospel.

Upon his superannuation he took up his residence in Kansas City, Missouri, where he united with the Grand Avenue Church. The yearly letters of his pastors to the Conference ever spoke of him as one of the jewels of that church, and of his presence as a benediction. Amid the years of privation and struggle, he passed his retirement, full of peace and content, and brought up his family to be a blessing to him. His last years were full of feebleness and suffering, but in the midst of his prostration he was serene and full of hope. His last hours were peace and holy triumph. He departed this life August 9, 1892, aged eighty-two years.

His memorial service was held in the Grand Avenue Church, Sunday afternoon, August 14, conducted by the Rev. J. B. Young, and other pastors of the city.

THE REV. WILLIAM WILSON.

Another one of our venerable fathers has finished his day. William Wilson, after many years of labor and patient waiting, has entered a higher life.

The parents of our brother were of Scotch-Irish stock, and devoted members of the Presbyterian Church. He was born in Belfast, Ireland, in 1812. When he was nine years old his parents came to America. In a few months he was orphaned by the death of his mother. Of his early life few details have come to hand. The age of twenty-one finds him in Montgomery county, Indiana, in attendance at a Methodist camp-meeting conducted by the Rev. Richard Hargrave, where Brother Wilson is powerfully converted and becomes a member of that church which he has adorned by almost sixty years' faithful walk and ministry.

March 28, 1837, he was married to Miss Mary White, now his aged widow.

From the time of his conversion Brother Wilson felt the call to preach, and soon received license. In 1838 he was admitted on trial in the Indiana Conference, his young wife encouraging him in his devotion to the work. The following is a partial list of his appointments:

1838, Russellville; 1839–40, Dayton; 1841, Frankfort; 1842, Logansport; 1843, superannuated; 1844, Russellville; 1845, Newport; 1846–7, Rockville; 1848–9, Fort Wayne; 1850, Centerville; 1851–2, Roberts Chapel, Indianapolis. In 1853 he was transferred to the Northwest Indiana Conference, where he received appointments for six years. In 1860 he received appointment in the Indiana Conference one year. Then returning to this Conference, he was appointed in 1861–2, Fort Wayne; 1863, Peru; 1864, superannuated; 1865, Union Chapel, Richmond; 1866–9, Presiding Elder Warsaw District; 1870, Kokomo; 1871–2, Kendallville; 1873, Bluffton; 1874–92, superannuated. He was in the traveling ministry fifty-four years, and effective thirty-four years.

At the time of his superannuation he took up his residence in Indianapolis, in the home of his son-in-law, A. L. Wright, attending worship at his old charge, Roberts Park. In 1887 he removed to Los Angeles, California, and four years later went to University Place, a suburb of Los Angeles, and united with the church there.

Failing gradually, his last sickness was one of great suffering, irradiated by great triumph. On Sabbath morning, September 18, 1892, he passed to the eternal rest, aged eighty years.

This brief memoir can not do justice to this Christian gentleman, this faithful minister, this ornament of the church. Eternity can alone reveal the extent of his usefulness and faithfulness. Excellent in life, abounding in good works, eloquent in the pulpit, full of the fruits of the Spirit, he was far above the average in ministerial power. His works do follow him and are his best eulogy. His Savior's approving smile is his exceeding great reward.

THE REV. RANDOLPH J. SMITH.

Randolph J. Smith departed this life January 13, 1893, at Chili, Ind., aged sixty-eight years, eight months and twenty-two days. He was born at Jamesville, N. Y. He was married to Lavina Miles, at Clarksfield, O., August 9, 1852. Three sons survive him; also his wife, while one daughter died in 1883.

We are without full particulars of Brother Smith's boyhood. We learn that he was very skillful in the wagonmaker's trade in all its branches. Also that he was converted when a young man, and became a member of our Church.

In 1857 he was admitted on trial in the North Indiana Conference, under the presidency of Bishop Simpson. His appointments read as follows; 1857–8, Orland; 1859, Huntington; 1860–1, Pierceton; 1862–3, Bourbon; 1864–6, Summit; 1867, Columbia City; 1868, Westfield; 1869, Noblesville; 1870–1–2, Perrysburg; 1873–4–5, Palestine; 1876, Supernumerary; 1877–8, Silver Lake. In 1879, he located. In 1891 he was re-admitted, and placed on the superannuated list. In all he labored twenty-two effective years.

Brother Smith was a preacher of great force, full of close argumentation, and strong especially in answer to the objections of the unbeliever. A few Sabbaths only before his death he preached at Chili with great fervor and earnestness.

His end came suddenly. Stricken with apoplexy, he lingered a week only, and entered into his reward. His funeral was conducted at Perrysburg by his pastor, the Rev. I. W. Singer. His pastor says of him, "He was a good minister of Jesus Christ."

MRS. MATTIE A. CARPENTER.

Mattie A. was the daughter of the Rev. John P. and Alvira Hay, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Born March 26, 1854, she died in the city of Indianapolis, May 30, 1892, in her thirty-ninth year.

Born and brought up in a Christian home, in the midst of all the sacred influences that cluster about a minister's family circle, she carried the innocence and purity of youth with her into the mature years of womanhood, and developed a beautiful Christian character.

She was married to our brother, the Rev. G. M. Carpenter, May 4, 1876. Although knowing well from the experiences of her early years the nature of a minister's life, she went gladly with our brother into the work when he was admitted to our Conference.

In all their itinerant life she was his true helper, never assuming to direct, or to be a leader in society and conversation, yet was she perfectly womanly, showing a wealth of tact and sweetness that attracted all hearts to her. She was a minister's wife in every sense of the term, entirely loyal to the interests of her husband and of the people whom they served.

Religiously she enjoyed a rich experience, and was always ready to give a reason for the hope she possessed.

Her death was the result of a surgical operation for the removal of a cancerous growth. As the last hours approached, her testimony was that the gates were pushed ajar, and that she was permitted to look upon her promised rest, and that all was well. After giving full directions for her burial among the friends she loved, she peacefully and gladly went to be with Christ.

Her funeral was at Milford, Ind., many ministers being present, and there her body awaits the resurrection morning.

MRS. ELIZA H. BRENTON.

Mrs. Eliza Holmes Brenton was born in Shelby county, Kentucky December 29, 1813.

She died in Fort Wayne, Ind., June 22, 1892, at the age of seventy-eight years and six months.

She was the widow of the Rev. Samuel Brenton, who, in 1830, joined the Indiana Conference (the entire State being in one Conference at that time), and who was, for nearly a quarter of a century, an active and useful minister of the gospel, in connection with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Brenton was the daughter of Andrew and Sarah Holmes, and her early childhood was passed in her Kentucky home. After the death of her father, which occurred when she was eight years old, she removed with her mother, brothers and sister to Crawfordsville, Ind.

She was converted at an early age, and united with the church. She was married in 1832, and, as the wife of a pioneer Methodist minister, became familiar with the toils and privations, so common to the itinerant and his family, in the early history of Indiana.

She cheerfully shared with her husband these hardships, often sacrificing personal comfort to the good of others, and ministering with her own hands to the wants of those more needy than herself.

Among her husband's colleagues were such well remembered men as Richard Hargrave, Augustus Eddy and Aaron Wood. These pioneers of Indiana Methodism, and many others, were frequent inmates of her home. To the close of her life she delighted to recall the deeds and words of these now sainted ones, whose names lingered, like fragant incense in her memory. In 1857 a great shadow came over her life in the death of her husband. She was left with limited means, and a family of six children, only one of whom was able to assist in providing for the rest. But she was equal to the emergency; her planning and executive ability were worthy of a wider field of action. Faithfully and well did she discharge her duties to her children and to all with whom she had to do.

Though always of a happy and hopeful disposition, Mrs. Brenton was singularly retiring, so that her religious faith was not manifested in loud professions. Her attitude was rather that of one "who hungers and thirsts after righteousness;" whose daily prayer is, "Lead me in Thy truth, and teach me, for Thou art the God of my salvation," and who, in humble trust, steadfastly pursues her way, omitting none of the duties which devolve upon her. She was all her life a Bible reader, but, especially, during the last years of her life was the holy book her daily companion, and when she was no longer able to read, the words which she had "hid in her heart" were her comfort and her stay.

For years she had been in feeble health and was thus deprived of many of the privileges of the house of God, often not being able to attend for weeks at a time; but she always looked forward to the communion service, and made the greatest effort possible to be in her place for that solemn service.

During the last year of her life she was a great sufferer, but through all her bodily pains, her faith in her Heavenly Father never wavered. She often spoke of herself as "ready and anxious to depart and be with Christ." When, at last, she passed away, we felt that death was to her but the beginning of eternal life.

So lived and so died this Christian woman.

Does not the "wise man" truly say of such: "Her price is far above rubies." In her, also, are fulfilled other words of the wisest of men: "Her children also rise up and call her blessed."

G. N. ELDRIDGE.

MRS. MARY J. BROWN.

Mary J., relict of the late Rev. John M. Brown, was the daughter of John and Alzina Sloan. She was born in Naples, Ontario county, New York, and died in Orland, Indiana, July 22, 1892.

When a child she was brought by her parents to Bethel, Branch county,

Michigan, and afterward to Lake Gage, Indiana, where, in early life, she was converted and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in whose communion she remained faithful all her years.

On December 28, 1863, she was married to John M. Brown. When he was admitted to this Conference, in 1871, she went cheerfully with him into the ministry, and shared its labors for seven years. She was left a widow under peculiarly painful circumstances, her husband, stationed at Andrews, dying suddenly in Huntington from accidental poisoning.

After his death she took up her residence at Orland, in order to be near her aged parents. Here, as always, she showed by her daily life and her readiness to minister to those in distress, that she "had been with Christ and learned of him." Her illness covered a period of more than four years, and all her pain was borne with patience, and without murmuring or complaining. Conscious to the end, she assured her family and friends that all was well, and departed in great peace. She leaves two married daughters.

Her funeral took place in Orland, and there her body was laid beside that of her husband.

MRS. HANNAH COLCLAZER.

Hannah Johnson, wife of Rev. Thomas Colclazer, formerly of this Conference, who died September 26, 1865, was born in Licking county, Ohio, a short distance east of Newark, and died in Union City, Ind., July 29, 1892, in her seventy-eighth year. She was a widow twenty-seven years, and a faithful itinerant's wife for fourteen years. Although sister Colclazer had not a single living relative known to her, yet being a blessed holy woman she won to her a large circle of very dear friends who tenderly loved her and faithfully watched over her to the last. She died in the home of her true friend, sister Jacob. Among the special friends who lovingly remembered our sister in ministeries of kindness and care was brother Elwood Pierce and family, of Ridgeville. Her mind was clear and strong to the last, and her faith in God, unfailing, brought her abundance of His precious grace. Her Christian experience was clear and scriptural. At the Urbana camp meeting, in Ohio, she received the blessing of perfect love a number of years before her death, and exemplified it in her daily life to the end. She had protracted illness, when La Grippe supervened and she was finally taken off suddenly. During the entire time of her widowhood she was a conference claimant. She felt that she should deed her little home to the Preachers' Aid Society, which she did, the day before her death. Her funeral was preached by her pastor, the Rev. E. F. Hasty, and her body was laid to rest to await the resurrection.

Constitution of the Preachers' Mutual Aid Society,

As Amended April 1, 1893.

ARTICLE I.

This Society shall be called THE PREACHERS' MUTUAL AID SOCIETY of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

ARTICLE II.

The officers of this Society shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be elected annually, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected.

ARTICLE III.

It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Society; but if he be absent, the Vice-President shall preside; and if they should both be absent, then the Society shall elect a President pro tempore.

ARTICLE IV.

The Secretary shall keep a record of the names of the members of the Society, and accurate minutes of its proceedings, and shall give notice in our church papers of the death of any member of the Society, as soon as it is made known to him.

ARTICLE V.

The Treasurer shall receive and pay out all moneys belonging to the Society, in accordance with the constitution, under direction of the Society. He shall provide a suitable book, and record therein the names of all members in alphabetical order, leaving the opposite page for payments on the death of members. On the death of a member he shall rule a column, "Payment on the account of the death of————," charge the amount of the payment in the column, and credit the same therein when payment is made. Near the close of the session of the Annual Conference of each year, he shall report in writing, the names of all delinquents, to the Society, to go on its minutes, a meeting being called for that purpose, and no member who remains delinquent after the adjournment of the Annual Conference session, shall be regarded as a member: Provided, That missionaries in foreign lands shall be notified by mail by the Secretary, and be allowed a reasonable time in which to make settlement.

ARTICLE VI.

Members of this Society shall be required to make the following payments upon the death of each and every member thereof, to-wit: Where the age (at nearest birthday) of any member is under thirty-five years, he shall pay the sum of six dollars for each deceased member; from thirty-five to forty-five, eight dollars; over forty-five, ten dollars, while he continues to be a member: Provided, That the present members of the Society shall only be required to pay on the above basis (according to their present ages) from this time forward. The date of birth of members shall be given to the Secretary and Treasurer, and recorded by them opposite their names.

ARTICLE VII.

Any member who shall forfeit his ministerial standing in the Conference, either by expulsion or withdrawal, shall forfeit his membership in this Society, and his heirs shall have no claim upon the funds thereof.

Should any member of this Society die without leaving a widow or children, and also die intestate, there shall be no claim upon the funds of this Society because of such death; but any member of this Society may bequeath, by will, his interest in the funds thereof.

ARTICLE VIII.

This Society shall hold its annual meetings for the election of officers and the transaction of business, at the time and place of the session of the Annual Conference.

ARTICLE IX.

This Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote of the members at any regular meeting of the Society.

ARTICLE X.

Should more than two members of the Society die in any one year, it shall be the privilege of members of this Society to give their individual notes for one half the amount due, payable within ninety days of the time of the session of the Annual Conference at which payment is due, with six per cent. per annum interest from date; and all the money paid in shall be equally divided among the claimants upon the funds of the Society: Provided, That any member giving his note shall be entitled to all the benefits of the Society during the time for which the note is given; but should he die before the note is paid, payment shall be made on said note out of his benefits.

ARTICLE XI.

The officers of this Society shall serve without compensation from the funds thereof.

ARTICLE XII.

Any layman or other person may become an honorary member of this Association by subscribing to the Constitution, but shall have no claims on the funds of the Society; they only desiring to benefit the ministers and their families, and agreeing to pay the sum of five dollars to the Treasurer of this Association upon the death of any member thereof.

ARTICLE XIII.

Members of this Society shall not forfeit any of their rights, claims or privileges in consequence of a transfer to any other Conference or by location, provided they shall continue to comply with the requirements of this Constitution.

ARTICLE XIV.

All questions relating to forfeiture of, or restoration to membership, all claims upon the Society, which may be in question, and all questions relating to the interpretation of the Constitution, shall be referred to the Standing Committee, consisting of the officers of the Society and three senior members, to be appointed by the chair; and all facts, papers, statements or representations shall go to the committee without discussion, and the action thereon by said committee shall be final.

ARTICLE XV.

Any member of this Society, having forfeited his membership on account of non-payment of dues, shall nöt be re-instated until all dues have been paid.

ARTICLE XVI.

Hereafter no preacher shall be permitted to join or be restored to membership in this Association who is over forty-five years of age, or who shall have neglected to join for five years after he has been admitted into full membership in this Conference.

ARTICLE XVII.

No preacher shall be permitted to join this Society except during the session of the Annual Conference, and no one shall be permitted to withdraw from the Society except by private notice to the Secretary during the Conference session.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Members who are unable to pay assessments at Conference, and thereby forfeit their membership, wishing to retain their membership, shall give their notes, payable within ninety days, and upon payment thereof at or before maturity, they shall be restored to membership.
